The Mason LINE

by Chen Mason

We ran across a clipping, setting forth some conclusions of an unknown author the other day. The date was January, 1952, the title, "Things I wish I had known before I was twenty-one."

—M.L.—
What I was going to do for a living, and what my life work would likely be.

—M.L.—
That my health after 30 depended to a large degree on what I put in my stomach before I was twenty-one.

—M.L.—
How to take care of money.

—M.L.—
The commercial aspect of dressing neatly and sensibly.

—M.L.—
That a man's habits are hard to change after twenty-one.

—M.L.—
That a harvest depends on seeds sown.

—M.L.—
That you can't get something for nothing.

—M.L.—
That the world would give me just about what I deserved.

—M.L.—
That the sweat of my brow would earn my bread.

—M.L.—
That a thorough education not only pays better wages, but it brings the best of everything else.

—M.L.—
That honesty is the only policy, not only in dealing with my neighbors, but also in dealing with myself, and with God.

—M.L.—
The value of absolute truthfulness in everything.

—M.L.—
The folly of not taking older people's advice.

—M.L.—
That everything my mother wanted me to do was right.

—M.L.—
That "Dad" wasn't an old fogey after all.

—M.L.—
What it meant to father and mother to rear their son.

—M.L.—
More of the helpful and inspiring parts of the Bible, especially the four books on the life of Christ.

—M.L.—
The greatness of the opportunity and the joy of serving a fellow man.

Bollenbacher Annexation Viewed By Water Works

William Jennings, attorney for the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Water Works, explained Tuesday to the water board "legal boundaries" under which the district could operate while attempting to annex the Bollenbacher property which is now a part of the Otay Irrigation District.

Walter Bollenbacher, head of a housing development firm, had previously announced plans to build 1,500 houses in Spring Valley along Sweetwater, south of Jamacha. Bollenbacher stated that the property would be annexed to the city of San Diego in order to acquire water.

Election on formation of Otay Municipal Water District is set for January 17. If approved, it is possible that the Otay District could be taken into the Water Authority and Metropolitan Water District soon after March 1, 1956. Then the tract could work out arrangements for inclusion within the irrigation district.

A statement of policy of La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District follows: "Providing the irrigation district (January) bond issue carries:

"The board is willing to include within the district adjacent areas which can be served with water, when they meet the following conditions:

"Become a part of an agency which is a part of the County Water Authority and Metropolitan Water District, thus qualifying to receive Colorado River water.

"Pay the cost of whatever works are necessary to bring water service to the area."

"The irrigation district cannot assume the responsibility of supplying 1500 to 2000 homes with water unless the conditions are met.

"The city of San Diego is not so restricted, and can annex land without preliminaries as stated. The passage of the bond election is a vital part of the expansion of the district.

"One great reason for juvenile delinquency is that there is no youth movement in this country," says an editor. Evidently he has not attended any modern dances.

'DRY RUN' ON RIBBON-CUTTING ASSURES OPENING CEREMONY SUCCESS

A girl can't get too much practice when she is to cut the ribbon of a newly opened First National Bank... then reign over it as Queen of Opening Day, so Janice Jewett, under the watchful guidance of bank manager Jack Koop, practices her duties.

The actual ribbon cutting will take place Monday morning when the First National Bank occupies its new quarters of a million dollar building at Imperial and Golden Avenues. Open house will be held all day.

Janice, who lives at 7585 Hughes, will represent Lemon Grove in the Mother Goose Parade Sunday, November 20.

The First National Bank of Lemon Grove will begin operations in its new and imposing $1,700,000 building at Imperial and Golden Avenues Monday. The Lemon Grove branch has been renting quarters at 7700 Broadway since June, 1948, when the bank was first established in the community.

Total investment in the new facility exceeds a quarter-million dollars, including 30,000 square feet of property and equipment located in the new building. Modern in every respect, the new structure incorporates many desirable customer conveniences in its 2,200 square feet of air-conditioned working space, four times larger than former quarters.

While the old branch had only six tellers' windows and one narrow office, included in the new building are drive-in windows, night depository, 15 tellers' windows and two screw offices where real estate transfers may be negotiated in privacy. A huge parking lot accommodates 90 cars at one time.

Confidence in the future of the Lemon Grove area has been responsible for the present expansion, according to Anderson Berwick, president of First National Bank.

"A bank's physical equipment, its vaults and business machines, do not in themselves spell success," Berwick pointed out. "To make a profit, a bank must have a market. To develop that market, it must build recognition for friendly, efficient service."

"We had faith in the area when we pioneered banking in Lemon Grove little more than six years ago. We have it now. The community is growing in population and business, with every prospect that the pace will continue. There is a most impressive outlook for a continued high level of activity."

"There is nothing casual about the growth of First National. Our own growth and achievements have been great, but the responsibilities and opportunities for banking leadership in the years ahead are even greater. We are proud of the progress of the Lemon Grove area, and proud of our contribution to it."

GIRL SCOUTS TO HELP DECORATE HOSPITAL TRAYS

Girl Scouts of Monterey Heights Troop 353 are busily at work making unique Thanksgiving favors for patient trays at Graceland Hospital, announced Mrs. George Conroy, Lemon Grove, sewing chairman for the hospital's Women's Auxiliary. This enterprising troop, for which Mrs. Harold A. Hersh is leader and Mrs. Sam Crochell, sponsor, has, according to Mrs. Conroy, already made a total of 70 towels for the hospital.

First National Sends More Than $68,000 In Christmas Checks

Christmas buying season came officially to Lemon Grove this week as the First National Bank disbursed $68,463.69 in Christmas Savings funds to more than 500 Lemon Grove depositors. Jack Koop, branch manager, announced.

"These checks always receive a warm welcome from Christmas Club members who are able to meet year-end financial obligations and at the same time give Santa a boost with Yuletide stockings as a result of joining First National's Christmas Club, Koop said.

He also said that 1956 Christmas Club enrollments are now being accepted at First National and after November 21 enrollments will be accepted at the modern new building at Imperial and Golden. Open house for the new building is being held November 21 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

Much Titled Official To Be Present at Bank Opening

George Sears, First National Bank of San Diego vice president, will be among the dignitaries at the opening of the Lemon Grove First National Bank and probably holds the title of the most "titled" official at the affair. In addition to his bank designation he is past or present—

President of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

Panel Member Financial Public Relations Association.

Bachelor of Arts at University of Nevada.

Alumni of Rutgers University School of Banking.

Graduate American Institute of Banking.

Slicker Slickers Merchant Twice In Two Days

A slick, suave young man, stating that he had won a cash prize for the most auto sales in a contest put on by his firm, came into the Highlander last Friday afternoon after 3 o'clock, introduced himself, told about winning a $500 prize and needing some new clothes, and proceeded to select suits, underwear and various articles that the well-dressed man needs daily. After making his selections and directing necessary alterations, the young man left, saying he would be back later and pay for and get the purchases. He came in about dark, gave a check for the amount due, about $275.00, and left with the goods. The check was for a few dollars more than the goods amounted to, but "he needed some drinkin' money."

On Saturday afternoon the same young man came breezily in, leaving his snazzy convertible parked at the curb. As you know, parking is free in Lemon Grove and plenty of it with the present arrangement of two rows of autos on each side of the thoroughfare. He explained that there were some items he had forgotten to get the day before but he'd select them and pick up and pay later.

He again selected articles valued in excess of $200 and came back later, gave another check for a few dollars over, took the goods and left.

The young man gave his name as Robert Kelly, his employer as Ben White, sales manager of auto agency at 1444 University Avenue. Ted Skelly, Highland manager, phoned the auto agency, asked if Kelly was employed there. White said "Yes," but this being after banking hours the bank on which the check was drawn was not queried.

Monday, after calling the bank, Skelly swore out a warrant for Robert Kelly, also known as Delbert Birmingham. At last accounts he had not been arrested.

Total cost to the Highlander store was $492.97. The auto agency that employed Kelly or Birmingham is out a new Mercury convertible.

Some other merchants in Lemon Grove are reported to have been hooded by Kelly.

Just think of the suave approach this guy has, to hook a merchant twice for almost 500 bucks!—D. H.

Two Youths, Xmas Shopping Bent, are Now Languishing In County Jail

Two youths, apparently bent on doing their Christmas shopping early, were caught red-handed in the toy and sports goods shop of Erv Brandon, 7388 Broadway at 3 a.m. Monday.

The youths, one a juvenile, were apprehended by Lemon Grove patrolman Hal Johnston. Johnston said he saw a car parked in the rear of Brandon's shop and found the door to the shop open.

Johnston's wife, who rides with him, covered the rear door while he went to the front. The youths, attempting to break out, threw a rifle through the front window. They surrendered when Johnston fired a shot in the air.

Said 18 year old John Lee Couch of 3754 Clairmont Drive to Patrolman Johnston, "Thanks for not shooting me." Couch is employed at Ryan Aircraft.

The other youth, a juvenile, also lives in San Diego. Dynamite and fuses were found in the youth's car. They gained entrance through a washroom window.

Success Drive Total Touches 22%

Lemon Grove's campaign in the United Success Drive this week had reached 22.2 per cent of its $14,250 quota with total contributions of $3,167.00.

By divisions, the standings were Residential, $1,827.00; commerce and industry, $330.00; schools, $462.00; and business $514.00.

The drive as a whole brought in $1,444,719 for 83.2 per cent of its $1,735,450 goal. Arnold J. Phillips, Highland division chairman, said this amount is enough to continue Red Feather services at their present level.

"Every dollar now contributed," he said, "will directly help take our 25,000 children off the waiting list for Red Feather services, including several hundred in Highland communities who are waiting to join the Scouts, the Ys, the Boys' Clubs and the Camp Fire Girls."

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Think you've got troubles? Maybe you have, but compared to Arthur Eddy's lot, you're lucky.

Arthur Eddy, as I'm sure you know, is San Diego County Assessor. Around the prematurely grey hair of his head this week is swirling one of the most amazing controversies ever faced by an elected county official.

For one thing he has become the San Diego Don Quixote, jousting with the whole State Board of Equalization because of their attitude on county assessments. Eddy claims he, and assessors of all California counties, are denied the right of appealing any of the board's property equalization mandates.

While Eddy was in San Francisco last week on a related matter, all Hell broke loose in another quarter. There was an open "rebellion" in his own office and it cascaded into the open on the wings of three thousand "reports" which were sent to county publishers, property owners, realtors, insurance executives and attorneys.

The "report," issued by an official of the assessor's, charged the assessor with mismanagement, assessment favoritism, and waste of public funds.

The material was signed by Raul A. Laughlin, 58, county appraiser, who called it a "private report as opposed to an 'official' one."

Laughlin, who lives at 365 S. 45th Street, has been a county employee for 20 years. The report was issued, he says, on his own time and at his own expense to let taxpayers know "what is happening" and "the quality of service they are receiving."

Laughlin charges (1) that a grocery chain with 38 stores enjoyed a reduction in assessment from $1,048,480 to $836,100 this year presumably by change in lien date; (2) a daily newspaper gained a $220,000 reduction in assessed value this year; (3) a Coronado hotel got a $220,000 reduction on their tax bill this year; (4) a trailer court on Del Anza Point was assessed $43,430 in 1954, dropped to $6,376 the same year, then upped to $10,200 this year; (5) that an assessor's "Mexican army" exists with 23 supervisors supervising 41 appraisers. Since 1950 regular employees totals has increased from 97 to 140; (6) that 300,000 appraisal forms for land without buildings and filling costs alone are fantastic.

Laughlin also submitted five charts which purport to show that (1) Assessor's budget up 390% against the county budget increase of only 20% since 1943; (2) Assessor's budget up 106% more than percentage of population increase; (3) Assessor's budget up 108% more than tax roll being appraised; (4) increase in assessment and appraisal costs up from 79¢ per parcel in 1943 to $2.18 currently; and (5) that the buildings re-appraisal program is growing obsolete so fast because of confusion, and failure to post findings, that by 1960 about half obsolescence of the $720,000 program will have occurred, rendering the program valueless.

Eddy, in a letter dated November 10, asked the County Grand Jury to investigate Laughlin's charges. He also asked the civil service commission for the right to "fire" not only Laughlin, but other "troublemakers," Eddy said. He declined to reveal the names of the other employees.

"Laughlin is a good mathematician and a splendid engineer but his eccentricities have become more prominent during the past few years," Eddy said. "The charges Laughlin makes are untrue and I can prove it. Obviously mass condemnation of the assessor's office cannot be made to stand up. He is accusing, in fact, 40 members of my staff of dishonesty."

"I think it is beneath the dignity of this office to attempt to refute each of Laughlin's charges" unless the grand jury requests explanations," Eddy stated.

Laughlin said that it became apparent that the present climax was to come as far back as 1949 when Eddy was assistant assessor. This was due, Laughlin said, to some of the policies Eddy was attempting to institute. At that time Laughlin was chief of the real estate division, a position he held until 1954. Eddy offered him, Laughlin said, a newly created position of chief appraiser with a higher rate of pay "in exchange for my loyalty."

"When I refused he abolished the position of chief of real estate and the only way I could remain in the department was to accept a demotion," Laughlin

Vandals Smash Neon Sign—Damage $200

Some unknown vandal (probably a kid or two with a yen for throwin' rocks), destroyed the neon sign at Ward Lumber Company's yard, Massachusetts and Broadway, last week.

"Honest John" Ward said, when reporting the incident, that he probably wouldn't do anything to the kids if he caught 'em, but hopes they won't do it again. Cost of repairs $200. Repetition of the offense, should the perpetrators be caught, might result in severe penalties being assessed against the parents.—D. H.

Mrs. Phillips Named Area Chairman of Hospital Auxiliary Group

At a meeting held November 7, the Lemon Grove area of Graceland Hospital Women's Auxiliary elected a new area chairman for 1955 in line with a provision of the auxiliary's newly-amended by-laws that each area elect its own chairman. She is Mrs. William K. Phillips of 4633 Valencia Drive. Mrs. Phillips, who is one of the area's younger matrons, is known to be a very able and energetic person, and the momentum gained during Mrs. Herbert S. Haug's auspicious chairmanship is expected to continue if not accelerate.

The newly-elected area chairmen will be installed at the December 9 meeting, along with other officers-elect. This will be the auxiliary's annual meeting; a general meeting that will be held at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Committee chairmen have been requested by the auxiliary's president, Mrs. J. Foster Counts, to submit their annual reports in writing, by the first week of December, so they may be designated in advance of the annual meeting.

Laughlin said the position offered by Eddy would have increased his pay $600 a year. His present position is a demotion, pays $1680 a year less than the job Eddy offered, he said.

Eddy said that Laughlin's position had been abolished two years ago. "He was just rounding out 20 years of service and he asked for the demotion to protect his pension rights," Eddy said.

Eddy said he didn't know whether civil service would permit the "firings." "I'll certainly be in an unfavorable position if I as a department head cannot take appropriate steps for operating a smooth running department," he pointed out.

DeGraff Austin, county supervisor, said that he had heard rumblings of the trouble for "some time."

"Mr. Laughlin has been viewed with sympathy by his superiors but none of his eccentricities had been made to the supervisors previously. The fact that a man his age rides a motorcycle seems a bit unusual," Austin said. (David Bird, Lemon Grove area supervisor, is out of town for two weeks.)

Laughlin would not deny to me that he would run for the assessor's post should Eddy be deposed. Eddy refused to say that he would resign if he couldn't clean up the "mess." Laughlin is being held incommunicado during working hours at civic center. Eddy has become a good case for a high blood pressure specialist.

Rabbi Cohn to Be Speaker in Congregational Series

Everybody in the Lemon Grove area is invited Sunday evening, November 20 at 7:30 p.m. to the First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove to hear an outstanding speaker and distinguished lecturer, Rabbi Morton J. Cohn of Temple Beth Israel, San Diego, lead a discussion on "The Dynamics of Fellowship," a consideration of practical means for lessening international and inter-racial tensions.

This is the third in a series of "University of Life" lectures presented to the community on Sunday evenings by the social action committee of the First Congregational Church. Moderator for the discussion will be Clarence Allen, principal of the Vista La Mesa school and chairman of the social action committee. The meeting is open to the public without charge.

V. L. M. PTA PLAYS TO S.R.O.

"Standing Room Only" was the sign in evidence when the Vista La Mesa Parent Teacher Association held their November meeting, Thursday, November 10 at 7:45 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. R. C. Alexander, president. The inspirational thought for the evening was presented in the form of a solo "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Phil Peterson, a member of the unit. Colors were presented by Brown-Troop No. 353, Mrs. Ireland and Mrs. Boudier as leaders. "A look into the classroom," a regular monthly feature of the meeting, was presented by "Cy" Metzner, fifth grade teacher at Vista La Mesa School. He used as his subject "Arithmetic With Meaning." A film was used by which to better explain the methods and purposes of teaching arithmetic.

Since the meeting fell during "American Education Week," the third step in the yearly theme of the unit, "Mix With American Education Week" was used.

Following the business meeting the parents were invited to the classrooms of their children to view the work that had been accomplished this year and to hear from the teacher what he or she expected to accomplish during the remainder of the year. They followed their children's schedule through a day at school. The bell sounded in 45 minutes to call the parents back to the cafeteria. For learning their lessons well they were rewarded with refreshments prepared and served by the room mothers and parents of Mrs. Whaley's and Miss Wain's third and fourth grade rooms. The committee feels that the meeting was most successful and offered the parents an opportunity to better understand the problems of the school and their children.

Scale Model of New Congregational Church Unveiled

Blueprints and a scale model of the proposed new sanctuary of the First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove were delivered last Sunday to an executive board meeting of the building council by Mr. Paderewski and Mr. Mitchell of Paderewski, Mitchell and Dean, the architects who have been engaged by the board of trustees of the First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove to plan the new sanctuary which is to be built on the Carr property at Church and Main Streets, across the street from the present church.

Reactions to the plans and model were highly favorable, according to Art Thomas, chairman of the building council. The plan is generally similar to the plan of the Oneonta Community Church in Pasadena, which members of the building council visited a few months ago. Changes and details of construction can still be accepted by the architects, according to Mr. Thomas.

In order to put a final stamp of approval on plans, and to instruct the architects to proceed with detail planning, there will be two meetings held in the near future. The first is a full meeting of the executive board of the building council, which will approve progress to date and plan further details in collaboration with the architects. The second is an open meeting of the full membership of the building council on Tuesday, November 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Friendship Hall. All interested members of the church are invited to this open meeting, at which time it is hoped that the building council will vote a recommendation of "go ahead" to the architects, through the board of trustees.

Favorable action by the building council will swing most of the committees of the council in action, in order to plan, in conference with the architects, the many details which must be incorporated in the finished structure. From 60 to 80 days are to be given the architects for completion of final plans. It is the hope of the executive board of the building council that the new sanctuary will be ready for use by the church membership by Easter Sunday, 1957.

WHAT'S DOING

Once a year, in just about every American City, the time comes for "The Big Event." And so it is this week in El Cajon for it is MOTHER GOOSE PARADE time. This will mark the ninth annual Mother Goose Parade for El Cajon, the ninth year in a continually growing pageant of color, gaiety and sound dedicated to the children of the world — an hour-filled, miles-long panorama of fairy tales come to life. If you have seen MOTHER GOOSE, you will (naturally) go to see it again; if you have yet to see your first one — I can't urge you too much to avail yourself of the opportunity to "live" this outstanding event.

And while all of Mother Goose carries with it a feeling of gaiety and happiness may I introduce a word of caution? This parade is attended by (literally) hundreds of thousands of people with an attendant thousands upon thousands of automobiles. Going to El Cajon and leaving it after the parade calls for an extra amount of care in driving, an extra alertness on the part of the person behind the wheel. Impatience sometimes causes some drivers to forget the courtesy which usually governs their actions in the driver's seat. If we all drive BOTH for ourselves AND the other driver the Mother Goose Parade will live long as a very pleasant memory for us all. So, DO be careful — DON'T allow impatience to add a tragic note to the DAY. May I wish you a HAPPY MOTHER GOOSE DAY — All day.

Floodlights and Sound Trucks Will Help to Open Two New Stores

The grand opening of two new stores on Broadway on November 17, 18 and 19 will be enhanced and lighted suitably by floodlights and sound trucks, free balloons for the kids and door prizes.

The stores celebrating their entry into the business life of Lemon Grove are Brouillard Hardware and The House of Toys.

Brouillard Hardware, Lucian and Ann Brouillard, props, at 7907 Broadway, has a complete stock of hardware, with everything in the hardware line on the shelves. "If you want it, we got it," is the Brouillards' motto. The store and the goods displayed are a joy to behold. Cost of stock on the shelves totaled $35,000, with more goods arriving daily. Lucian and Ann Brouillard have been working night and day for the past six weeks in preparation for this event.

"A new modern hardware store with carpenter tools, cement tools, builder's hardware, plumbing and electrical supplies."

Brouillard's has been open for business for a couple of weeks, and Lucian told this reporter Thursday that business was satisfactory, so much so that he has engaged a contractor to build a warehouse at the rear of his store.

"You gotta have goods if you want to sell 'em," he says. In the hardware business for 37 years, he knows his stuff.

House of Toys Is Ready for Christmas Shoppers

House of Toys at 7823 Broadway, in a brand new store, brand new fixtures and brand new goods that will delight the youngsters, will have a grand opening Friday with free balloons for the kids and a wonderful display of toys of every description, from dolls to hobby horses. We can't begin to describe the variety of toys on display, so you will have to go to the opening and see for yourselves, and be sure and take your youngsters along. You can make a special visit to select presents for Santa Claus to deliver.

The House of Toys and its establishment was conceived by Sam and Dorothy Kroschel, who have lived in Monterey Heights for six years. They have two children.

Management of the House of Toys will be delegated to Mrs. Pat Whitworth, who has 17 years business experience and promises satisfaction to customers.

Floodlights and a sound truck will add to the gaiety of the grand opening Friday.

Valuable prizes by way of a drawing and some free gifts for the kiddies will be part of the opening program.—D. H.

GROVE MAN, 90, DIES

A Lemon Grove man, John Fletcher Daily, 90 years of age, who was the campaign manager for William Jennings Bryan in 1906, died last week in San Diego.

Until recently Daily had lived at 6923 Central Avenue and was a member of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church.

Services were held Thursday at Conrad's Lemon Grove Mortuary.

Daily is survived by his wife, Carrie. He is past president of the Sourdough Club, a mining organization.

Highlanders Triumph, Regain 'Musket'

It'll be Chula Vista vs. Helix this Saturday night for the Metro League championship, following last Thursday night's 2-0 lacing on the part of Helix over arch rival Grossmont.

Besides winning the hard-fought game Helix also regained the coveted "musket" trophy, and now have a 2-3 record against the fighting Foothillers, who have only won one game all season. They tied once with El Cajon.

In Thursday's tilt the score was 0-0 after the first quarter. Helix couldn't even muster a scoring threat while the Foothillers were out-clasping them on both offense and defense. Then the Highlanders got mad!

Following a spectacular goal line stand in which they held their foes for four straight downs without an inch gained the Highlanders took over and from then on it was Helix all the way. All they needed was a little confidence and after stopping Grossmont on the six-yard line they got their needed spirit and started showing their stuff.

In the second quarter Dan Spinazola, sub-fullback in place of injured "Rudy" Rodzinski, shot six yards over tackle to score. Gary Dunn, right half, made the first of his three conversions on a plunge. Minutes later Dunn galloped 30 yards to tally TD No. 2. He also plunged for the extra point. Dave Olson, the Metro League leading scorer with 30, booted 36 yards in the game's last touchdown in the final period. Dunn converted.

Grossmont closed out its Metro campaign with three losses and a tie.

The Helix defense was hot and cold. In midfield Grossmont made fair gains, but in deep Helix territory the Highlanders got tough and held them.

Final score: Helix 21, Grossmont 9.—Bob Turnbull.

NEW MEXICO TROUNCES STATE AZTECS, 26-4

It was a speedy New Mexico A & M football team that broke the line constantly to rack up a 26-4 victory against the San Diego State College Aztecs in a game played in Las Cruces, New Mexico, last Saturday afternoon.

A tussle-up was the pre-game prediction, but a freshman-laden squad from the sun state trounced our off-again-on-again warriors from Aztecville.

Don Magee, quarterback, hurled 19 yards to end Al Canizales for San Diego's touchdown late in the final period.

Sunday afternoon, Coach Bill Schutte was hanged in effigy on the Aztec campus.

TERR-O-VITE New 3-Way Treatment

An outstanding contribution to scientific gardening! Attacks soil and plant problems with the most advanced technological instruments known. Works three ways to make your garden more beautiful than ever.

1 A powerful soil penetrant

Terr-O-Vite contains a wonder chemical that makes water water! It penetrates hard or heavily matted soils, so life-giving nutrients reach plant roots, aren't lost in surface run-off.

2 Chelated trace minerals treat chlorosis (yellowing)
 To overcome trace mineral deficiencies that cause yellowing, Terr-O-Vite actually changes the chemistry of the soil! Vital trace minerals "locked up" in the soil are released for plant use. Additional Iron, Zinc and Manganese, already in the magic chelated form, is provided. Then, to speed plant recovery, the complete, high nitrogen fertilizer in Terr-O-Vite acts as a quick "greener-up."

3 Combats acidity in soil and water

California's soil and water, apt to be alkaline, can take a terrific toll. Terr-O-Vite's acidifying action helps save your plants from injury.

Here is three-way help for dangerous conditions that spoil the beauty of your garden. Easy to apply, use a sprinkling can or any liquid fertilizer applicator. Get Terr-O-Vite at your nursery or garden dealer's.

For more helpful gardening suggestions, get a free copy of "Doc" Cha-Kem-Co's Horticultural Guide at your nursery or by mail (enclose 26 stamp for postage).

MEET 'MISS STEAMED CLAM'

Beverly Bodie, 1670 Broadway, who is to represent Lemon Grove in the Toyland Parade next month in North Park, has acquired an additional title.

She was named "Miss Lemon Grove Steam Clams of 1955" at Club Venezia, 1644 Broadway, last week. Club Venezia is Lemon Grove's newest restaurant and cocktail lounge and sea food is a daily feature at both lunch and dinner.

Steamed clams, according to owners Leonard Mercario and Larry Taramina, will be a regular winter feature. Fresh crabs will be flown in regularly from San Francisco, the owners say.

Toyland Parade will be held Sunday, December 4.

WHY OUR TAXES KEEP GOING UP

"How much is your tax bill?" You have probably had the answer in a note from County Tax Collector Wilbur Easton before you read this, as the tax bills are mailed out October 23, so you can get over the shock and write a check for the first half of the bill.

A partial explanation for the continued rise in our yearly tax bill is given in an article in "Tax Outlook," which outlined a whole series of pressures that new families bring to a community.

"What do 100 new families mean to a community?"

1. About 400 new people.
2. Fifty new kids in grammar school, 25 in junior high and 25 in senior high.

3. 12 new grade school, and 1.80 high school rooms.

4. City will have to buy about four acres of land for grammar schools, high schools, parks, playgrounds and playfields.

5. 100 new families add about $20,000 a year to the school operating budget.

6. 100 new families mean 84 new employees in the police force and two-thirds of a new fireman. Police budget goes up $4,518 a year, and fire department, $2,830.

7. After adding jobs like fire, police, garbage, street cleaning, etc., the annual payroll of the city is increased by $12,000 to $15,000.

8. Water department will have to pump an additional 10,000 gallons a day.

9. One new hospital bed will have to be added at a cost of $10,000.

10. Finally, there will have to be a fraction of a visiting nurse and last, but not least, a fraction of a jail cell.

Girl Scout Bake Sale To Be Held Saturday

Back from the Girl Scout convention in San Francisco is Mrs. Carol Davy, chairman of the Monterey Heights Neighborhood Club—in time to push the Girl Scout Bake Sale this Saturday morning the 19th. There will be two sale points. One is in the Carr Hardware Store in Lemon Grove. The other is on the parking lot of the skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church in Monterey Heights, near the entrance to Loma Vista Village.

Mrs. Davy had gotten the sale plans rolling before she left. Now she returns from this biennial convocation, which she shared with 8,000 other Scouts, including 28 adults, six girl delegates and 40 other Scout-minded adults from this local council. Mrs. Davy is full of enthusiasm and countless ideas for furthering the growth and development of scouting in our own neighborhood.

It is of special interest to all local scouts and Scouts that the speaker at the convention in San Francisco, Lady Baden-Powell, wife of the founder of Scouting.

Student Teachers Approved for Work In District

Student or "cadet" teachers from San Diego State College were approved for the Lemon Grove School District Monday night at the November meeting of the school board. These senior students, education majors, do one semester of student teaching under the guidance of a "master" teacher recommended by the district and approved by the college.

This semester there are eight student teachers in the schools here, three at the junior high, three at Vista La Mesa, and two at Golden Avenue. Three of the eight are local students, Charlotte D. Minnis, Alice Milne, and Marcela Jenson of Lemon Grove.

S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent, reported on results of an accident survey made by a newly appointed safety committee in the schools. The board approved sending home, with the pupils, an informative letter and explanatory pamphlets regarding the pupil accident insurance being made available. The school district carries no coverage of this type for pupils.

In the audit report review, the board heard the business office of the schools here praised for the exact procedures in compliance with state regulations which have been followed. Other business included the reminder that bids for the San Miguel additions will be opened November 22, 8 p.m. at the Education Center.

The board heard a report and held a discussion on subdivision activity in Lemon Grove and its affect on the district. Several of these along the boundaries are requesting annexation to the city. Several school districts around San Diego face similar problems.

Civil defense evacuation plans were discussed. Since it was felt that there was a need for further study and broader suggestions, the problem was placed on the November 28 meeting at which time parents and other school patrons will be asked to contribute to the discussion.

The board, in deliberating over the disbursement of monies in the building fund, decided to investigate four avenues in which such monies could be put to the best use. If sufficient funds remain, an additional classroom might be constructed. They will seek an estimate on the cost of developing the lower playground and parking lot at the Vista La Mesa School. There is a possibility that warehousing and storage facilities might be developed on the land adjoining the education center. A fourth channel to explore is the possible purchase of an elementary site from land owned by Mrs. Emily Morris. All four possibilities will require investigation and further discussion before action is taken.

Final action of the board Monday night was the formal adoption of Chapter 35, Business Services, under the board policies and procedures. Next meeting is scheduled for Monday evening, November 28, at the Junior High School auditorium on School Lane.

Troop 251 Visits Sunshine School

Last week Monterey Heights Brownie Troop 251, with leaders, Mrs. Robt. Pearce and Mrs. Emil Gurnus, visited the Sunshine School in San Diego. Mrs. Eva Ritchie, principal, graciously conducted the troop through the school, introducing them to the physical therapy rooms, and explaining the functions of items such as the stall-like tables in which a child can stand in a strap harness, enabling him to work in a standing position.

The Brownies presented Mrs. Ritchie with 12 picture scrapbooks. These were made by the Brownies especially for the children at the school. They covered interesting subjects such as birds and animals, airplanes, insects, family life, boats, tractors, and beautiful nature scenes. Mrs. Ritchie accepted the books, thanking the girls for their interest and the splendid work done in these books. She assured the troop that the books would provide hours of enjoyment for the children at Sunshine Home.

DOUGHBODIES COOKED AT 'COME-AS-YOU-ARE' PARTY

Girl Scout Troop 683, with leader Mrs. Craig, met for a come-as-you-are party Veterans' Day at the home of troop member Susan Stevens. Besides enjoying interesting games, unique food was prepared and consumed by the girls such as Pot o' Gold (tomato soup with cheese biscuits floating on it) and Doughbodies (biscuit dough baked on a stick over a barbecue pit, removed from the stick when browned lightly, and the cavity left by the stick filled with jelly). In attendance were the following scouts and adults:

Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Mitchell, Margaret Brown, troop reporter, Janice Mitchell who planned the party, Paty Boggs, Sharon Davy, Gloria Pearce, Barbara Moss, Susan Stevens, Kay Hildebrand, Sue Hoffman, Sheryl James, Patty Smith, Sue Baucum, Dorcas Letulippe, Sharon Summerville, Nancy Jones, Jeri Clark, and Lisa Norr.

This is the troop which made the paper parrots for the M. H. Halloween carnival. They are now making sock monkeys to present to the children at the Sunshine Home, when they make their trip there to represent the troop sponsoring unit, the Lemon Grove VFW.

KNIGHTS SLIPPING TO CELLAR: LOSE 26-12

San Diego Junior College's Knights continued their drive to the bottom of the pile by losing to a heavily-penalized East Los Angeles Junior College team, 26-12. The game was played away last Friday night.

This game was the Knights' fourth league loss as compared to only two league wins. The Knights started off the season with three straight non-league victories then hit a slump.

Tom Tomaiko, qb, hurled a 14-yard pass to end Dallas Evans and Jim Frankson, t, plunged three yards for the Knights' scoring.

Nine 15-yard penalties were assessed against the Huskies, mostly for dirty play that resulted in several San Diego injuries. Dick Gardner (ex-Helix) suffered a broken jaw, Charlie Kahan (whose folks own the Popular

Juniors' Style Show Nets $600 for Swimming Pool

As a result of the Lemon Grove Juniors fashion show, Lemon Grove is approximately $600 closer to the dream of a swimming pool. The Juniors wish to take this opportunity to thank each and every one for their wonderful cooperation in making their third annual event a success.

Mrs. Eugene Johnson, chairman, stated the net proceeds were not as great as she had hoped, but the good will created among the merchants in joining together for a cooperative show was of value in itself.

The businessmen who modeled for the evening show did a wonderful job. If you did not attend you missed seeing your local editor, Mr. Goodwin, model a "lush" pair of Bermuda shorts.

At the next regular meeting of the Juniors, Tuesday, November 22 at the clubhouse, a fashion lecture, "Speaking with Poise" will be presented by Fashionably from San Diego, John Michael, local hair stylist, will present the latest in hair coloring, and "What to do with Long Hair." All Juniors are urged to attend. This would be a good time to bring that prospective member. All Senior members are welcome.

Among the many county Juniors attending the Southern District board meeting in Vista on November 13 were Mrs. Leroy Scagliotti, county Junior president, and Mrs. James Martin, Southern District music chairman and county auditor, both active members of the Lemon Grove Juniors.

Scavenger Hunt at Borrego Had By Troops 552, 1184, 863 and 1139

Monterey Heights Girl Scout Troops 552, 1184, 863 and 1139 spent a weekend recently at the Borrego State Park. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hicks with Scout Patty Smith, pulled the Daisy trailer and got to the site late that Friday night. In this way the girls were assured of a good campsite. At 8:30 Saturday morning the rest of the scouts left Monterey Heights, by Goodall bus and private cars. A total of 37 people made the trip.

Saturday morning was spent in setting up camp. Mrs. Hicks gave each troop a scavenger hunt list. These included a couple of "stiff" articles, aimed at making the requirements "high on to impossible," e.g., a chauffeur's license, ranger's badge, and a black night-gown. There were found after diligent search. A park ranger submitted his badge, Mr. Goodall gave up his license, and the gown? Found in a Scout leader's duffel bag!

At noon, leader Moe took about 30 girls up the mountain on a vertical hike. Adults watched the ascent, calling encouragement from the comfortable vantage point at the foot of the mountain. After resting, the girls went with leader Hicks on the traditional Palm Canyon Hike. There is no trail to follow, so the girls used a creek bed. A lizard, green scorpion, and a half-dead puppy contributed to the excitement of the trip.

On Sunday the girls held the Scout's Own. After lunch, gear was packed and the Scouts with their leaders and adult friends, returned home, arriving exhausted but happy about 3 p.m.

The program announced by Mrs. Byron Metzley, who combines the functions of vice president and program chairman, will include a film contrasting the conveniences of the modern kitchen with the inconveniences of kitchens of yesterday. The film will be presented by John A. Newman of Lemon Grove Linoleum and Custom Kitchens.

A good attendance is anticipated, as reported by the telephone chairman, Mrs. Frank Armstrong.

NAVY MOTHERS TO MEET FRIDAY

The Navy Mothers Club No. 8 will hold its monthly luncheon Friday at 12 noon at the Armed Services YMCA in San Diego. Birthdays of the month will be honored.

COCKATEL RIDES TURTLE, PULLS REPTILE'S TAIL

The turtle with two holes in his shell that we told about in last week's Review—the one Del Westfall picked up at Dayton and Barton streets in Monterey Heights—had a good time in Del's patio for several days, but kept trying to get out and ate all the flowers, and broke down the plants before he finally left.

James Johnson picked the turtle up in the street and kept it in his yard, but the reptile ruined Mrs. Johnson's chrysanthemums in his efforts to escape—broke down the plants like a bulldozer would, and a lady who called, said it was her turtle and she would come the next day and get him, but she never came back. Mrs. Johnson didn't want the reptile and didn't want to tie him up, so when Mrs. Mangold of 2540 Highland, Spring Valley, called she took the turtle home with her.

It was understood that if the owner claimed the animal she could have it.

The Mangolds have two turtles, one weighs ten pounds and the other is a little one, brought in from the desert. Mrs. Mangold says the ten-pounder and the Westfall rescued one fight like gladiators, but their son got a light chain and hooks it into one of the holes in the turtle's shell and he is getting along all right. It is almost hibernating time for turtles, and they will soon go to sleep for the winter in a box provided.

Both big turtles are tame, eat out of Mrs. Mangold's hands. They eat watermelon, grapes, tomatoes and lettuce, won't eat grass, like to have the underside of their jaws scratched. The Mangolds have a cockatoo that rides around on the big turtle's back and hangs onto his tail and gets dragged around.

That we would like to see. If you are interested in turtles, call Mrs. Mangold, HO 8-3176—"Mangold's Turtle Farm," 2540 Highland, Spring Valley. Really Casa de Oro, as their home is off of Kenner Drive.

HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY OF WORKS OF FORMER NEWSMAN TO BE MARKED AT LIBRARY

Two very special exhibits dominate the displays at the San Diego Public Library, Eighth and E Street, last month.

The first is in the Wangelheim Room on the third floor, where are shown books and manuscripts with hand illuminated pages. Illumination was the art of decorating pages with beautiful designs in color and gold leaf which was begun centuries ago and carried over slightly into the period of printing. It has been a neglected art for many years, but one of the examples in the display shows a modern book.

Included in the exhibit are two books loaned by Mrs. George Heyneman, daughter of Julius Wangelheim, to whose memory the room is dedicated. One is a "Book of Hours," a manuscript, a breviary on vellum picturing the months of the year with special saints' days and other church occasions. These books date back to the ninth century.

The other is "Chronicles of England," a 14th century manuscript giving the history of England from the Roman Emperor Diocletian through Henry V.

The modern hand-illustrated and hand-lettered book is "The Subaiyat of Omar Khayyam," decorated by Edward Taylor Jewett and was loaned for the display of Mrs. Dorothy Taylor. There are only two quatrains on each page and only the facing pages have the same design. This book is supposed to have been in the private collection of Rudolph Valentino and perhaps was made for him.

Each morning the pages in all these books will be turned so that new illuminations can be seen by those who visit the library daily.

The other special exhibit is in the main lobby on the first floor and observes the 100th anniversary of the appearance of George Horatio Derby's "Phoenixiana." Derby was a lieutenant in the Army Engineers and was sent to San Diego in 1850 to study the San Diego river and how to best make use of it. While here, he took over, very briefly, the editorship of the San Diego Herald, the city's first newspaper, and did much writing for it. His "John Phoenix" papers, which first appeared in 1855, and "Squibb" writings became nationally famous.

Materials in the cases came from the library's own Derby collection in the California room, the San Diego Historical Society museum, the Masonic Lodge (which Derby helped found here), Union Title and Trust Company, Ben F. Dixon, instructor in San Diego history for evening high school classes, and Mrs. Alan Gray of La Mesa, great-granddaughter of Derby. They include pictures of people and places of San Diego during Derby's time, gallery proofs of some of his writings, issues of the Herald, and many other "Derbian" objects.

SAN DIEGO SONG WRITERS INCORPORATE

Musi-Lyr Songwriters, an organization formed about two years ago to give the young writer a chance to put his foot inside the publisher's door, has been incorporated under the laws of California. This word was received last week.

The organization, which is non-profit, is registered with the Better Business Bureau of Los Angeles and with the L. A. county clerk. Its headquarters are in Hollywood, with a branch club here in San Diego.

Musi-Lyr boasts 105 members, many in other states and several in Canada. They have placed 16 songs with legitimate publishers. Three songs are on records and playing in juke boxes. The three songs are "What Is This Melody?" "Little TV Cowboy" and "Lookin' On," which has just been released by Faber records.

Those who spend their time helping others to get started get no remuneration whatsoever. Except the contact men get gasoline money only.

Here is how the organization works: The composer member sends in his song to Musi-Lyr (a record and a lead sheet). His name is not put on the music, only a number.

At the meeting the record is played before the members, who are unaware of the composer's name. The song is voted on and remarks written. If the song gets over 50 per cent Yes votes, it is turned over to the contact man, and he takes it to the legitimate publishers (BMI and ASCAP) for their rejection or acceptance.

Should the publisher or recorder accept the number (royalty basis) then the Musi-Lyr organization will receive 10 per cent of the royalties for club expenses, such as office expenses, clubroom rent, etc.

The San Diego branch of Musi-Lyr meets once a month, usually the second Saturday night.

How to Treat Grove Sickly Lawns, Plants With Yellowed Leaves

By R. L. CHACON
Horticulturalist and Lecturer

When lawns look sickly and plant leaves turn an anemic yellow, one immediately suspects inadequate watering or feeding. Frequently, however, the situation is not that simple. All too often there is more than one villain in the picture.

Inability of water to penetrate the soil may be a factor. For water must carry plant nutrients down into the root zone of the growing grass and plants. In hard-to-penetrate clay, packed or root-matted soils, most of the nutrients may never reach the roots. So both time and fertilizer are wasted. For what is the good of applying fertilizers to trees, shrubs and lawns, if a high percentage of the active nutrients run off the surface beyond the reach of the plant? When soil penetration is in itself a problem, it takes more than fertilizing to relieve starvation.

Similarly, the "primary" plant foods in fertilizer, nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, have no effect on plant chlorosis (yellowing of foliage) caused by a deficiency of such minor elements as iron, zinc and other "trace" minerals.

In many of our western soils, these essential trace elements may be present, but so tightly locked chemically by other elements that they are not available. The national suicide rate is declining, probably because most people are so busy these days they don't have time to kill themselves.

Irrigation District Directors Not Interested in Cloud Seeding Program

The Lemon Grove Water Works, after hearing Manager Shelton's comment on "Preliminary Study for New Basis for a Cloud Seeding Contract," decided that they were "not interested," but thought Manager Shelton's attendance at a meeting to be held in the near future would serve to keep him informed, if he cared to attend. Shelton said he had no special desire to attend the meeting—he likes to stay home with his family as much as any man—so Helix Irrigation District will not participate in the investigation of rain-making possibilities in this area.

The district has contributed at least twice to the expense, so far without result. Harry Griffin thought "pay according to benefit" would be proper, if such benefit were derived and could be proven. The case of Hatfield vs. San Diego was referred to Old Timbers will remember 1915 and Hatfield's contract with San Diego, wherein he was to get $10,000 if he produced rain, and the rain came in torrents and dams were washed out and much flood damage resulted, but Hatfield didn't get his promised $10,000. The city claimed he was responsible for the millions of dollars damage by flood waters. Opinion has been divided as to the justice of Hatfield's claim, despite the legal wiggles advanced for non-payment.

Rain has come after severe droughts in various parts of the country where the clouds were seeded, and it looked for a while as though nature's shortage could be remedied by man, but again legal difficulties stopped operations, so we in San Diego still wait till the wind gets in the south and start praying.

President Levy didn't go along all the way with the other directors in the "cloud seeding" discussion.

Too early to tell, but it looks like another dry winter.

HELIX GROUP TO PLAY AT L. A. GAME

Helix High School Concert and Marching Bands have accepted a bid from University of Southern California to play at their football game with Notre Dame November 26. They will play musical instruments—not football.

Helix High School will be the only school from this area represented.

The band, under the direction of Daniel Lewis and Larry Christensen, will play in the stands, and with other bands of half-time.

The band will leave at 4:30 Saturday morning to meet the schedule for a rehearsal of all bands at 9:30 a.m.

The band will be guests of USC for lunch.

Booming prosperity is not without its drawbacks. For one thing, it's costing most people far more than ever before to live beyond their means.

Pack Lunches That Please Your Young'un

"Oh boy... tomato soup!" is that your Teddy talking... that cute little tyke who's getting such a kick out of his lunchbox? Tomato soup, garnished with sausage. Cheese sandwiches. Carrot sticks poked through olives. A bunch of grapes. And marshmallows cereal candy to satisfy his sweet tooth! No wonder he's so happy! Yes, indeed, Mom, you can put a smile on your son's face even when you're miles away! Fill up his lunchbox with body-building foods, food so hot and fresh and appealing. Hot soups, tasty and nourishing.

Made with milk, they put dairy into his day. And there are literally dozens of condensed soups to choose from. Mixing and matching opens up more exciting possibilities. Soup-mate suggestions...

Stews of chicken and green peas, chicken quiche and cream of mushroom soup, beef and beef soups, vegetable soup and tomato soup.

Let your imagination "run wild" in the sandwich department. Choose from a galaxy of breadstuffs... whole wheat, white, rye, raisin, pumpernickel, date-suet, honeybread, fruit roll, frankfurter bun, and popovers.

Fillings range from the solid types... egg, tuna fish, chicken, and ham, to rooked meat... roast beef, minced ham, Bologna, salami, meat loaf, and others. In between come "kid favorites" such as peanut butter, cheese spread... even scrambled eggs!

When lunch foods are assembled, look in something to surprise your young'un. Like a decorated apple. Cheerful greeting scribbled on the shell of a hard-boiled egg. Colorful printed waxed paper wrapping for his sandwich. Shiny new pencil. Or a balloon. And don't be surprised if your Teddy turns out to be the happiest kid in the class!

churches Sunday. (Psalms 103:1). The need to glorify God in our body as well as in our soul and spirit is accentuated by Jesus when he healed the man with the withered hand. Luke's Gospel (6:9, 10) relates that he commanded the man to "Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. . . . And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other."

BILL DEAN GETS TWO DEER IN UTAH

Bill Dean, popular tenorsorial artist, returned last week from his second hunting trip this season. This second time Bill brought home two members of the animal family Cervidae, a buck and a doe. Utah licenses hunters to kill one buck and one doe per season, cost of licenses $45 for one district, but if applications for licenses are made early, $5 more gets another deer in another district.

Bill took his wife along on this second trip, so she could do the cooking and see the deer running around. Mrs. Dean accompanied her hubby on some of his hunts, but Bill says it was pretty rough country and high up.

It snowed once while they were in the mountains, but not enough to drive the deer down from the heights, so Bill had to work for his trophies.

Braver, Utah was the objective point of Dean's pilgrimage. It was pretty cold at night, water freezing to one quarter inch thick in buckets.

Bill's first trip was to Idaho with five other hunters, and he didn't have any luck, so when he came home and learned that Utah's deer season was still open he sent in $45 and got his licenses. The Idaho license cost him $75, and allowed one each of deer, elk and bear.

The Dean family will have venison for Thanksgiving dinner—D. H.

POSTAL WORKER GETS CASH FOR IDEA

Lawrence J. Armbrust of 9237 Olive Dr., Spring Valley, a clerk in the main San Diego post office, was awarded a post office department check for $12.50 for a suggestion he made to improve postal service. Armbrust devised a way to re-use obsolete mail pouch labels. It was his second such award. Armbrust and two co-workers had their pictures in the Tribune last week. The other two boys got certificates. All were beaming smiles, in the picture—D. H.

NATIONAL FORESTS REALM OF THE WILD

Sport on one of the national forests which contain 81,000 miles of fishing streams and 2 1/2 million acres of natural and artificial lakes. These public forests also furnish food and shelter for nearly one-third of all the big-game animals in the United States and form many, many thousands of fur bearers, game birds and waterfowl. They are truly a Realm of the Wild.

With the exception of a few game preserves, all 181,000,000 acres of national forests are open to hunting and fishing under the fish and game laws of the states in which they are located. Last year, over 10,000,000 visits were made by fishermen and hunters from every state in the Union to enjoy their favorite sports in these forests.

Wildlife is a renewable resource just like grass and trees. Accordingly, the Forest Service works closely with the state fish and game departments to provide better fishing and hunting for the many people who love these outdoor sports. As America's population increases and working hours become shorter there will be ever greater demand for hunting and fishing on the national forests.

In marking the 50th Anniversary of its establishment by the American people, the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture urges every American to take a greater interest in the protection, development and wise use of the national forests which belong to all the people.

LAW IN ACTION

SCHOOL BUSES

School buses carry a precious cargo. So our state has set up laws to make sure that trips between home and school are as safe as possible.

The bus driver must meet strict personal standards. He must agree in writing with the school board to obey the Vehicle Code and all other rules dealing with transportation of pupils.

Each driver must have a special school bus driver's license. He must have a first aid certificate. Each bus must carry a first aid kit.

The school buses also must meet strict standards. Only certain types of brakes, tires, steering gear, and the like are acceptable.

Once a week each driver must report the condition of his bus and suggest repairs. Each day before using it, the driver must inspect the bus. He checks the lights, horn, brakes and all emergency doors. If he finds anything wrong, he must get it fixed before he can carry any children.

After each day's use, school buses must be cleaned thoroughly.

The driver must see to the orderly conduct in the bus, and pupils who misbehave may lose their riding privilege.

When a school bus stops where there is no traffic signal or flagman, the driver must first see it is safe, then wait until the pupils cross the street. He must escort elementary school children—and others, if need be—across the street.

The driver must make a full stop at all railroad crossings. He cannot drive on until he has fully opened and closed the bus doors to see and hear that the tracks are clear. A driver cannot leave his bus with the engine running or the brakes off.

These are just a few state laws that safeguard our children.

Local school districts may also set up more rules just as long as they do not conflict with state laws.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Uncle Sam Rounding Up Tax Delinquents

Any folks who are delinquent in paying, or rather not paying, income taxes in years last past, had better begin to scratch some scratch-roughing pronto, 'cause our Uncle is taking steps to collect his due.

Four special collectors or investigators for internal revenue department have been assigned to this area, two each east, which means 30th Street to Imperial County line, and two west, border to Oceanside.

Surprisingly, 3000 names a month on the average have been investigated, and in most cases payments on the delinquent accounts arranged. Some cases, where the delinquent has no assets in cash but have an auto or other intangibles, said intangibles are seized and advertised for sale.

If a delinquent income taxpayer has real property, or if his name happens to have the same initial as a delinquent, a marginal note is made by the county recorder, and Uncle Sam will have first crack at any money involved, if a sale or transfer of said property is made.

A variety of excuses are offered by delinquents for not paying their income tax. Mostly it turns out that the delinquent figured he could get off by moving or changing jobs. When he is caught up with, not having the money is a futile excuse.

So, if you owe Uncle Sam any income tax for recent past years, better get some cash together. You may be called on, sooner than you think, by an internal revenue man with a lot of pertinent questions.—D. H.

Throvin' the Bull

By BOB TURNBULL
(This week's "Throvin' the Bull" is dedicated to the variety football squad of Helix High School (especially in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley grid-iron) who will challenge Chula Vista High School this Saturday night, November 19, at Helix High School in a tilt that will decide if Helix is to win their first league crown or if C. V. will win their fourth straight championship. Win or lose, the backers of Helix are with you fellows in the very end. Good luck.)

It's a joke, Sam! ... Linebacker: "I just threw a block that saved our game!" Tackle: "Have a war!" Linebacker: "No, thanks. I don't smoke."

Football ... Saturday, November 19, Chula Vista vs. Helix at Helix with the kickoff at 8 p.m. Came to decide the championship of the Metro League. ... Same day, date and time San Diego Junior College plays host to rugged Bakersfield College in Balboa Stadium. ... Likewise San Diego State College battles the Leathem team from MCRD in Astor Bowl. ... and Hapless Grummett, with only one victory all season, plays surprisingly tough independent St. Augustine High School on Friday, November 18 in Astor Bowl.

Seize 'n' Yell ... Striving to keep Helix original in every department, the cheer and song leaders have originated some real sharp songs, chants and yells for the pep area to scream (or sing as the case may be) to help our team continue their winning ways. Following are some examples:

Centers, ends, tackles, guards, get together, hit 'em hard—centers, ends, tackles, guards, get together, hit 'em hard. Good Helix, fight, fight, fight, fight.

Chula Vista, who are they? Little pink elephants, stuffed with hay. You wish 'em out, you ring 'em out, you hang 'em on the line. We can beat the Spartans any old time. (cheer).

One, two, three, four. Three, two, one, four who for what? Who you gonna yell for? Helix! Helix! Fight, fight, fight (cheer).

Hurray for Helix, hurray for Helix, someone in the crowd is yelling, Hurray for Helix. One, two, three, four, who are you gonna yell for? Helix, that's us (combination chant-song).

Highland ladders and highland ladders, we join our voices in a victory melody. Hear our singing, our happy ringing, we're here to help our team to win again today. (song).

(Cheer used in assemblies). Two bits, four bits, six bits, a half. All those for Chula Vista sit down and laugh.

To Helix ... If you fellows want this game, you can win it. Sure Chula Vista is big, tough and fast, with a winning tradition. But we're Highlanders of Helix and what we want we can get if we react fast, use good

Business Light in Township Justice Court

Judge Luther Husey, Lemon Grove Justice Court judge, who has been substituting for the vacationing judge in Oceanside during October, held court in Lemon Grove on Monday last, on his return from Oceanside. Various traffic cases were disposed of, with Beverly Jane Winston pleading guilty to violating 544A of the vehicle code, making a left turn without due caution. Judge Husey asked Mrs. Winston a few questions: "Are you married, any children, employed?" "Yes" to first, "No" to second and third queries. The judge said: "Your fine will be $11, which was paid. We couldn't hear what the lady said in her defense, but it seemed she had not made the proper signal before making the left turn."

Several names were called by the court without response. A civil case involving a collision on Hoffman Avenue and an intersection when Mr. Phillips tried to pass two cars that he had followed for some distance, finally pulling over to the left and increasing his speed. The second car ahead turned left and hit Phillips, doing considerable damage to both cars.

Judge Husey ruled that Phillips' action in trying to pass another car at an intersection denied him the right to collect from the other car owner. "Contributory negligence" was the term used. Looks like a battle between insurance companies if anything further is done legally. Young Phillips' case put in his objections to the judge's ruling, thought that several sections of the law had not been considered. It developed that the court's decision was final, and all parties to the action and three or four witnesses were free to leave, which they did. —D. M.

SENATOR KUCHEL PROTESTS RISING NEWSPRINT PRICES

United States Senator Thomas H. Kuchel protested recent notices of price increases for newsprint with a warning that when an American newspaper is forced out of business by rising costs of paper "a basic American freedom - the freedom of information - is placed under attack."

Kuchel, in a letter to the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee sent through his Washington office, said the latest price boost by Canadian newsprint manufacturers will add several more million dollars a year to American newspaper production costs. Increases in the last decade already have added a total of $450,000,000 to the publishing bill of the American industry, he noted.

"I am fearful that the cost of newsprint is approaching the point where it will be unbearable," Kuchel said.

He commended the committee for "having no time in ascertaining the facts."

"Free government has flourished in this land of ours because it is a nation of free citizens, with full access to the news. We must keep it that way," Kuchel wrote.

The California senator revealed he also is asking several federal agencies, including the departments of justice and state, for their suggestions in dealing with the situation.

LIFE IN LEMON GROVE $150,000 Worth of Trailers in One Trailer Villa

Want to see $150,000 worth of house trailers in one group? You may, and right in Lemon Grove, a scant two blocks north of Broadway, at the corner of Costa Bella and North Avenue. Costa Bella is a continuation of Main Street, which is the street on the west side of the S. D. & Arizona tracks. The street on the east side of the R. R. tracks is Imperial Avenue.

Now that you have the Costa Bella Trailer Villa located, go take a look, or even go in and meet Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson, owners and operators. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are co-owners with Mrs. Thompson's brother and his wife, but the brother is over in Arabia working for an oil company, so he lets Mr. Thompson do his share of the carrying.

The Trailer Villa covers two acres of land which has a slight slope to the south and west, paved roadways, places for 48 trailers, with slabs of concrete placed so that the trailer's door opens onto a "porch," with a canvas roof.

Some of the spaces have grass borders, others have flowers.

This reporter chatted with one tenant, a retired doctor from New York City, who said he had visited trailer "villas" from Miami, Florida, where winters are delightful but summers are not pleasant—too hot—in El Cajon, La Mesa and Lemon Grove, and found Lemon Grove the nicest place to spend the year 'round, so he and his wife decided to make Lemon Grove their home. "Nice and cool in summer, good stores at hand and nice neighbors."

Trailer spaces rent for from $25 to $30 per month, with water. Electricity is paid for by the tenants, who also furnish their own cooking gas. A "gas wagon" makes daily visits to the villa.

Children are not welcomed, there being only two in the camp, and they were tenants when the Thompsons took over two years ago. Several of the tenants are elderly folks, and children make considerable noise. Tenants with grandchildren like to have their young folks visit them, but not permanently.

Mr. Thompson is installing a horseshoe pitching space and a shuffleboard court for the entertainment of his guests, and a room close by that can be used as a reading room in inclement weather.

Six lovely date palms, at least 25 feet high, were planted on the corner some years ago and lend a tropical air to the "playground."

Tenants at Costa Bella Villas come from all parts of the country and all walks of life. Two sailors live there while on shore duty, a couple of airplane employees neighbor with retired bankers, doctors and others who find that life in a trailer is care-free and pleasant, easy on the lady of the house, and the mister

MERIDA HOLLEY PASSES IN KANSAS CITY

Word was received last week that Merida Holley, formerly of Spring Valley, had passed away in Kansas City, Missouri. He died November 3 after a long illness. He had been a resident in Spring Valley for about nine months, and moved to Kansas City in March.

Besides his widow, Mr. Holley is survived by a son, Leon Holley of Spring Drive, Spring Valley, and one daughter in Kansas City.

HELIX TYPING CLASSES POPULAR

Typing classes are offered practically every evening in the three high schools, Helix, Grossmont and El Cajon Valley. This program is popular as it serves many purposes. Some people come to learn the touch system, some students work toward speed improvement, and others are interested in advanced technique. Many students prepare for civil service examinations that require standards in typing.

Students come and go and anyone is welcome to join the classes at any time. Time and place information can be had by picking up an adult education schedule in give away boxes at the post offices or phone HO 4-4155 for further information.

Have you ever noticed that the good things in life are most often inexpensive things?

MESSIAH CHORUS NEEDS MORE SINGERS

This class has started rehearsing at the El Cajon Valley High School, Music Building on Monday night, under the direction of Harold Lutz.

Sponsored by the adult education program this is the second year that this special group has organized and they will give a public production the first Sunday in December. There is a need for more voices and the group is open to all adults who like to sing.

Practices are every Monday night until production 7 to 9 p.m.

NURSING ASSISTANT JOBS TO OPEN

Examinations for nursing assistant to fill vacancies at the U. S. Naval Hospital, San Diego, are now being conducted by the Eleventh Naval District Board of U. S. Civil Service examiners. It was announced today.

Salaries for the position will range from $2,960 to $3,175 per year and applications must be filed with the board of examiners on Broadway Pier. Necessary forms and copies of the announcement may be obtained at the civil service office on Broadway Pier, San Diego, or at any local post office.

By the time some parents get around to putting a foot down, the child already has his on the accelerator.
